

CHECK ALL THAT APPLY

- I enjoy meeting with people in their homes or community
- I am interested in the use of land and the relationship between land and people
- I desire to be part of a team building infrastructure projects
- I don't want to be in an office all of the time
- I prefer flexible hours - not always 8:00 to 5:00 but some weekend and evening work
- I enjoy being outdoors
- I enjoy travel, both local and around the United States
- I am able to relate to people of different backgrounds, race, gender, economic status, etc.
- I am able to verbally communicate and read body language
- I consider myself to be empathetic
- I have excellent basic math skills
- I work well independently
- I have an excellent driving record
- I consider myself to be confident
- I consider myself to be organized
- I consider myself to be a problem solver

CONTACT & LOGO

DID YOU CHECK A MAJORITY OF THE BOXES?

CONSIDER A CAREER IN RIGHT OF WAY

WHAT IS IT?

Right of Way professionals are real estate practitioners who acquire, manage and transfer land rights for building and maintaining energy and transportation infrastructure. Right of Way professionals often work under the Fifth Amendment of the US Constitution, acquiring private property for public use, with just compensation. Professionals include acquisition agents, relocation agents, appraisers, attorneys, asset managers, engineers, surveyors, title experts, and utility managers.

QUALIFICATIONS

- College Level Coursework: Math, English, Economics, Geography
- Beneficial Prior Work Experience: Office Administration, Civil Engineering, Surveying, Construction, Government Agency
- Valid Drivers License

